FROM : J. P. Mohr

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages A274-A276, Congressman Scherer, (R) Ohio, extended his remarks to include an article which appeared in the December 3, 1959, issue of the American Israelite. Mr. Scherer pointed out that in view of the current deplorable anti-Semitic activities all Members of Congress should have the benefit of this article. Mr. Scherer stated "This timely discussion of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's fight on divisive hatemongers was written by one of Cincinnati's outstanding citizens and lawyers, Mr. Irwin S. Rhodes. He is a prolific writer in the field of law. At the present he is chairman of the Committee for Preservation of Historic Legal Documents, Cincinnati Bar Association; chairman of Committee for Preservation of John Marshall Papers; and director of legal documents section, American Jewish Archives."

(SWASTIKAS)
CHAIRMAN FRANCIS E. WALTER (D-PA.) OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES SAID TODAY HE HAS INFORMATION FROM "UNASSAILABLE" SOURCES SHOWING THAT COMMUNISTS ARE BEHIND THE RECENT ANTI-SEMITIC OUTBREAKS IN WEST GERMANY.

WALTER SAID THE TROUBLE IS "COMMUNIST-INSPIRED FOR THE PURPOSE OF ATTEMPTING TO DISCREDIT THE WEST GERMAN ADENAUER GOVERNMENT." THE SAME TECHNIQUE HAS BEEN USED IN A COMMUNIST PROGRAM OF SUBVERSION IN POLAND AND OTHER COUNTRIES, HE SAID.

"THE FACTS AS REPORTED TO ME FROM UNASSAILABLE CONFIDENTIAL INTELLIGENCE SOURCES ARE THAT COMMUNIST AGENTS HAVE ROUNDED UP HOODLUMS AND OTHER DISREPUTABLE ELEMENTS TO DO THEIR DIRTY WORK, WHICH IS TO CREATE AN IMAGE IN THE PUBLIC MIND OF A REBIRTH OF THE NAZI ATROCITIES AGAINST THE JEWS--ALL AS PART OF A DIABOLICAL SCHEME TO FURTHER COMMUNIST DESIGNS IN WEST GERMANY," WALTER SAID.

"THE COMMUNISTS KNOW THAT WORLD OPINION DEPLORES BRUTALITY IN ANY FORM AND AGAINST ANY MINORITY GROUP," HE SAID. "THEY KNOW TOO THAT THE ADENAUER WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT IS A BULWARK OF STRENGTH OF THE FREE WORLD.

"IT IS ASSURING TO NOTE THAT THE OVERWHELMING MAJORITY OF RESPONSIBLE ELEMENTS IN WEST GERMANY ARE VIGOROUSLY OPPOSED TO THE ANTI-SEMITIC DEMONSTRATIONS AND OUTBREAKS AND ARE DETERMINED TO ERADICATE ANY RECURRENCE OF NAZISM," HE SAID IN A STATEMENT.

(ANTI-SEMITISM)

CHICAGO--THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS SAID IN A COPYRIGHTED STORY TODAY THAT THE RECENT EPIDEMIC OF SWASTIKAS AND ANTI-SEMITIC SCRAWLINGS IS THE RESULT OF ORGANIZED EFFORT OF FORMER NAZI SS OFFICERS THROUGHOUT EUROPE AND THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

DAILY NEWS FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT PAUL GHALI WROTE FROM BERN, SWITZERLAND, THAT SWISS OBSERVERS CLOSE TO THE INVESTIGATION OF THE MONTH-LONG SWASTIKA OUTBREAK BELIEVE AN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF NAZI OFFICERS WITH HEADQUARTERS IN MALMOE, SWEDEN, IS RESPONSIBLE.

THE SWISS OBSERVERS BELIEVE NAZI GROUPS HAVE BEEN ACTIVE SINCE WORLD WAR II IN GERMANY, FRANCE, ITALY, GREAT BRITAIN, ARGENTINA AND THE UNITED STATES AND HAVE DIRECTED THEIR ACTIVITIES FROM SWEDEN, THE DAILY NEWS STORY SAID.

THE STORY SAID THE SWISS ALSO WARNED THAT THE REIVAL OF NAZI-LIKE SYMBOLS ON SUCH AN INTERNATIONAL SCALE "ARE SO DANGEROUS AND FULL OF DIFFICULTIES FOR THE DEMOCRACIES THAT ONE OF THE FIRST MOVES OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL IN BERN WAS TO ASSIGN EARLY THIS YEAR SOME OF THEIR BEST SPECIALISTS TO INVESTIGATE IT AND FOLLOW ITS DEVELOPMENT."

THE DAILY NEWS STORY SAID SWISS OBSERVERS BELIEVE NAZI ORGANIZATIONS EXIST IN PRACTICALLY EVERY COMMUNITY IN WESTERN GERMANY.

THEIR AIM, THE SWISS SAID, IS TO SABOTAGE AND EVENTUALLY STOP ANY PEACEFUL COEXISTENCE BUILT UP BETWEEN THE EAST AND WEST.

THE SWISS AUTHORITIES SAID, ACCORDING TO THE STORY, THAT COMMUNISTS MAY HAVE SNEAKED INTO THE ORGANIZATION IN SWEDEN AND THAT THEY WOULD BE WILLING WORKERS TO DO ANYTHING TO BLACKEN THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT OF KONRAD ADENAUER BEFORE THE MAY SUMMIT CONFERENCE.

THE SWISS OBSERVERS HAVE CARRIED THEIR INVESTIGATION EVEN TO THE POINT OF IDENTIFYING LEADERS OF THE ANTI-SEMITIC NAZI MOVEMENT, FINANCIAL BACKING THEY HAVE BEHIND THEM, AND THE NAME OF THEIR ORGANIZATION, GHALI WROTE.

"THE EUROPEAN SOCIAL MOVEMENT," AS IT IS CALLED, THE SWISS SAID, IS LED BY FOUR NOTED NAZIS DR. PER ENGDAHL, A SWEDE; KARL-HEINZ PRIESTER, A GERMAN; MAURICE BARDECHE, A FRENCHMAN AND AN ITALIAN, PROF. MASSI, THE DAILY NEWS SAID.

Washington Capitol News Service release 1-6-60 sets forth that Chairman Francis E. Walter (D - Pennsylvania), of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, said he had information from "unassailable" confidential intelligence sources showing that communists are behind recent anti-Semitic outbreaks in West Germany; that it is a communist-inspired plot to discredit the West German Adenauer Government; and that communist agents have secured hoodlums to do their dirty work to create image in public mind of rebirth of Nazi atrocities against the Jews. The Director asked, "Have we any indication of this?"

INTERNAL SECURITY - GERMANY

During the past several weeks there have appeared in many countries throughout the world expressions of anti-Semitism, notably in the form of Nazi swastikas and "hate" messages painted on buildings, automobiles, et cetera. These may or may not be isolated incidents; however, in keeping with our responsibility, the Bureau is interested in any information indicating whether or not this anti-Semitic activity is a deliberate organized campaign on the part of Nazis, communists, fascists or others. In this regard, local newspapers on January 20, 1960, carried an article emanating from Bern, Switzerland, to the effect that Swiss observers believed that the recent appearance of Nazi swastikas and anti-Semitic slogans in Western Europe is concerted action of a group of former SS officers, German and non-German, with headquarters in Malmo, Sweden; that the purpose of this organization is to prevent, if possible, and sabotage any durable coexistence between the East and the West; that communists may have infiltrated the Malmo organization in Sweden in order to discredit the Adenauer Government in West Germany through anti-Semitic activities; and that the Malmo organization is linked to fascist clubs in France, Italy, and England. # Red Hate-Drive Plans Are Proved, Bonn Says

From News Dispatches

BONN, Jan. 19—The Government claimed today it now has proof that "Communist influences were behind the world-wide anti-Semitic incidents of recent weeks."

A Government spokesman here said the arrests Monday night of three anti-Jewish slogan scrawlers at Lehrte, near Hanover, confirmed intelligence reports that had been in government hands for some time.

The spokesman said the reliable information in the reports, part of which was published Monday, said the central committee of the East German Socialist Unity (Communist) Party met last January to lay plans for anti-Semitic incidents to bring West Germany into disrepute.

Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano today conferred with Georg A. Federer, consul-general in New York. A Foreign Office spokesman said they discussed the effects the West German outbreak was having in the United States.

B. APPROX 1937

The three persons arrested at Lehrte were caught in the act of painting the words "Jews Get Out" on the walls of houses in black ink. They were identified as Kurt Thomas, 33; Kurt Blank, 25, and Wolfgang Hulitschke, 28.

Police said Blank had taken part in the 1951 East Berlin Communist World Youth Festival and Hulitschke was arrested in 1951 while illegally trying to travel to East Germany for the Festival.

Police in West Berlin announced the arrest of Wolfgang Solondz, 21, a member of the banned neo-Nazi National Youth of Germany organization. He is suspected of having links with East German Communist officials. Police said they want to establish whether Solondz was sent as a provocator by the East German state security service.

Bernhard Schlottmann, 22, treasurer of the neo-Nazi National Students' Federation, confessed last week that he was under East German secret orders to stir up neo-Nazi activity in West Berlin.

B. APPROX 1935

Both Schlottmann's group and the National Youth of Germany were banned as unconstitutional. Police said Solondz had boasted to neo-Nazis that he could get them weapons from the Soviet zone.

The East German Communist Party issued a statement denying it was behind the incidents. It also denied that its central committee had planned organized anti-Semitic acts in a meeting last year.

The West German news agency DPA reported Monday night that West German intelligence had information that East German Communist authorities had drawn up plans for "action commandos" to desecrate Jewish monuments and discredit West Germany before the world.

Carlo Schmid, acting president of the Bundestag (federal lower house) here, will read an all-party declaration on the incidents Wednesday.

The Bundestag is expected to debate the situation soon and to consider the need for new legislation.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, FBI DATE: 1-27-60

FROM : Legal Attaché, Madrid (105-286)

SUBJECT: ANTI-SEMITIC OUTBREAKS IN WEST GERMANY AND ELSEWHERE INTERNAL SECURITY - GERMANY

ReBulet 1-21-60 to Legat, Bonn.

In accordance with the instructions contained therein the following summary of information which had been obtained from Embassy sources is submitted:

On the night of January 9-10, 1960, swastikas were painted on the doors of the American, British, and French consulates in Bilbao, Spain. On the morning of January 10, 1960, this being a Sunday, an anonymous caller telephoned a local newspaper in Bilbao and suggested that if a representative of the newspaper visited the American Consulate there, he might find something interesting. Apparently only a matter of hours later, Radio España Independiente, a radio transmitter operated by the Communist Party of Spain and which is believed to be in Prague, Czechoslovakia, reported the painting of the swastikas on the doors of the Consulates in Bilbao.

On January 26, 1960, [redacted] of the Embassy Political Section advised that over the weekend of January 23-25, 1960, swastikas had been carved into the brass name plates of the Casa Americana, a USIS building in Bilbao, Spain. He also said that swastikas had appeared in the past few weeks in Barcelona and Madrid, there having been some three different "epidemics" in the latter place, with the buildings of the Bank of Spain and the Spanish Ministry of Air being utilized for painting swastikas.

[redacted] said that it is the opinion of most Embassy officers that this painting of swastikas is being done by unorganized groups of hoodlums. He said that he has a theory which is not shared by anyone else in the Embassy that the painting of swastikas might be organized by former Nazis, a number of whom reside in Spain. He said that he had no concrete evidence to back up this theory.

None of the official Spanish sources contacted in connection with this matter has expressed the opinion that the campaign is a Communist-directed one, and these sources are rather inclined to the idea that the swastikas are the work of hoodlums. The fact still remains, as set forth above, that the Communist Party radio did announce the painting of the swastikas on the Consulates in Bilbao within a very short time after the painting had been done, and this would seem to indicate that either the Communists had advance knowledge that this was going to be done, or they have an excellent communications system for transmitting this type of news from Spain to Prague, where the transmitter is supposedly located.

In accordance with Bureau instructions, this matter will be followed closely and the Bureau will be advised expeditiously of any new incidents.

Washington Capital News Service 1-20-60 release with date line Bonn, Germany, pointed out West German Government announced it had proof communists behind many recent anti-Semitic incidents and West German Government will publish at future time White Paper on subject. The Director noted, "Can't we get some facts re this!"

Based on a newspaper article in the "Washington Post and Times Herald" of 1-20-60 containing information similar to that in the above Washington Capital News Service release we sent a cablegram to the Legal Attache, Bonn, dated 1-20-60 asking him to check into this matter. As soon as a reply is received from the Legal Attache, you will be advised. We have received word from the Legal Attache, Bonn, on 1-7-60, from the Legal Attache, London, on 1-20-60, and from the Legal Attache, Paris, on 1-20-60, that they have checked into this matter in their respective countries and that their sources do not confirm that these outbreaks are organized incidents; however, the Legal Attache, Paris, has advised that he is scheduled to meet with Swiss authorities today to determine if as previously reported in the press there is any information available to the Swiss indicating that these outbreaks are organized efforts of pro-Nazi groups which have been infiltrated by the communists.

ACTION:

Attached is a cable to Rome alerting him to this situation and instructing him to immediately find out whether such incidents have occurred in Italy as has been reported. Also attached is a letter to all Legal Attaches also alerting them to the situation and instructing that they should check with their sources and furnish the Bureau any information indicating what is in back of these anti-Semitic outbreaks.

ANTI-SEMITIC OUTBREAKS IN WEST GERMANY AND ELSEWHERE
INTERNAL SECURITY - GERMANY

ReBulet 1/21/60.

The Bureau cannot too strongly emphasize its serious concern regarding anti-Semitic outbreaks abroad. Isolated incidents are infectious and soon find expression through hate groups in other areas. The use of organized anti-Semitism as a political weapon by the Nazis and Fascists prior to and during World War II was a major tragedy of that era. The Soviets are obviously not averse to use of this tactic where the stimulation of religious hatreds would work to political advantage and the vast network of communist parties and communist organizations represents a potent weapon in the hands of Soviet Russia for accomplishing this.

As noted in Bureau letter dated 1/21/60, the Bureau desires to obtain all possible information through resources available to the Legal Attaches regarding recent and future outbreaks of anti-Semitism abroad. It should be clearly established whether or not the outbreaks are the result of concerted efforts by the communists, neo-Fascists, neo-Nazis or any organized group whatsoever. Regardless of whether it is possible or not to nail down the motivating influence behind such activity you should endeavor to establish whether the communists or other groups are capitalizing upon such incidents for propaganda or political purposes. It is not unreasonable to conclude that the group which benefits most from such activity may have had a strong hand in organizing it.

The collection of such information can only be accomplished through prompt recognition of the Bureau's interest in such matters and aggressive ferreting out of the facts through available sources. Passive collection of data which is volunteered will not serve our purpose. [redacted] b7D

The Bureau desires that the Legal Attaches in Bonn, London, Paris, Madrid and Rome submit a letter to the Bureau on the 4th and 19th of each month regarding this matter until further notice beginning 2/19/60. This letter should specifically delineate the results of your efforts to acquire the desired data regarding recent anti-Semitic incidents as well as regarding any new incidents which occur. Data which would be of interest from a dissemination standpoint should be included in a letterhead memorandum attached to the letter. Where affirmative data is received indicating these incidents are the result of organized efforts and where there are any new major outbreaks or pertinent developments utilize cable facilities to advise Bureau of facts and results of inquiries.

While these instructions for regular submission of data are applicable at this time to those Legal Attaches stationed in Europe the other Legal Attaches are of course responsible for keeping the Bureau advised of pertinent developments in this regard.

For the additional information of the Legal Attache in Bonn, the UPI dispatch from Bonn 1/20/60 mentioned several other points apparently in support of the contention by an "official spokesman" that the West German Government had proof the communists were behind many recent anti-Semitic incidents.

The dispatch said some of the evidence came in the form of a confession by Bernhard Schlottman, 22, treasurer of the neo-Nazi National Students' Federation, that he was under East German secret orders to stir up neo-Nazi activity in West Berlin. The dispatch also said another youngster, Wolfgang Solondz, who illegally crossed the border into West Berlin last year, had just been arrested as a communist agent. He had become a member of the National Youth of Germany, a "rightist" organization which was banned the prior week, and boasted he could get weapons from the Soviet zone. Get the facts about both of these incidents to determine how they fit into the over-all picture.

The dispatch also said the West German Ministry of Defense had issued a paper on this based on intelligence reports and then cited the meeting in January, 1959, to which you refer in your cable of 1/22/60. It cited the "report" as saying the East German communist authorities planned the organization of "action commandos" to desecrate Jewish monuments while the communist underground was given orders to cooperate in any activities that could create unrest in the Federal Republic. Students in an East Berlin university, according to the report, were advised that anti-Semitic demonstrations would be staged in West Berlin and that they should take part in any rally whether it was for or against the Jews.

Muggeridge Labels U. S. Anti-Semitic Outbreaks

Reuters

LONDON, Jan. 17—British author Malcolm Muggeridge said today the United States "is in practice the most anti-Semitic country in the world."

Muggeridge, onetime editor of the humor magazine, "Punch", bitterly attacked anti-Semitism in an article in the pro-Labor Sunday Pictorial.

"If you join certain American clubs you have to provide the names of your parents and of your grandparents in order to insure that they are non-Jewish," he said.

"Again, there are certain areas—for instance, on Long Island—were people of Jewish descent are not permitted to buy real estate."

"Though American Jewry is powerful financially—and notably in New York State, politically—it is inconceivable that a Jew should become President of the United States," he said.

"Jews can, in certain circumstances, wield influence, but no Jew may aspire to the White House. An American Disraeli is out of the question" he added, referring to 19th Century British Prime Minister Benjamin Disraeli.

'Nazi' in Berlin Gets Beating

BERLIN, Jan. 25 (UPI)—A West Berlin Jew today took Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's advice and gave an anti-Semite a "good thrashing."

The Jew hit Heinz Weil, 33-year-old salesman, with a bar stool when Weil called him a "Jewish lout," West Berlin police reported.

No charges were preferred against the Jew but police ordered Weil's interrogation.

Police gave Weil a blood test to see if he was drunk and then sent him home. He was believed to have a broken jaw.

The fight took place early today in a tavern in downtown district of Charlottenburg.

The Jew acted on advice given by Adenauer in a speech to give a good thrashing on the spot to persons committing anti-Jewish acts.

The Jew's name was not disclosed.

The 1-11-60, issue of the "Canadian Tribune" headlines an article on the recent series of incidents throughout the world, including Canada, of anti-Semitism and points out that the policies of the West allowed the Nazis to return to high office in West Germany and are now bearing their evil fruits. The article also pointed out that fascists around the world are being encouraged to crawl out of their holes by the wave of anti-Semitism and then cited the various incidents in New York City; Melbourne, Australia; Austria; Italy; Great Britain; Sweden, and Denmark. The paper also carried an editorial criticizing the western policy of re-arming West Germany as a bulwark against communism and said Hitler had once been so armed for the same reason. It said the forces of anti-Semitism and Nazism must be halted and stamped out before it is too late.

There have been relatively few such incidents in Canada; however, there have been at least three in Montreal, Quebec, where an advertising placard on a bus was defaced with Nazi symbols and a hate slogan and a Jewish doctor's automobile was damaged by demonstrators who soaped swastikas on it. There have also been a couple of incidents in Vancouver, B. C. Prime Minister Diefenbaker has gone so far as to express his shock at such incidents in Canada and has called on the public to avoid such outrages.

WORLD-WIDE SWASTIKA FUROR

1960 was ushered in on a wave of overt anti-Semitism. As if by chain action, manifestations of racism spread throughout a shocked world, from West Germany throughout Europe, from Australia to Hong Kong -- and to the United States. At this writing -- three weeks after the initial Cologne outrage -- reports have poured in from some 20 nations, and the epidemic still shows no sign of abatement.

The furor was set off on Christmas Eve, when Nazi symbols and slogans were smeared on a Cologne synagogue which Chancellor Konrad Adenauer had helped dedicate, and on a nearby memorial to Jewish martyrs. Two 25-year-old men were apprehended, both members of the German Reich Party, which claims 16,000 members and is regarded as one of the principal mouthpieces for hard-core Nazis in West Germany today. The Government immediately denounced the outrage and started action against the party. Nevertheless, swastikas swept across the West German landscape, appearing on eight Jewish homes and a Catholic church in Wuerttemberg; on a war memorial and railroad car in Brunswick; on an Evangelical church in Schleswig-Holstein -- among other places. On January 2, the Bonn government angrily charged that the flare-up of desecration and other acts of hooliganism was the result of a deliberate effort to defame the republic.

In The United States

First evidence that the epidemic had infected the United States appeared on January 3, when a large swastika was found painted on Temple Emanu-El in New York City. Shortly thereafter, the Riverside Church was smeared. New incidents soon followed in nearby Queens, Brooklyn and suburban Long Island and Westchester. Additional reports of Nazi-like acts came from Jacksonville, Fla.; Marshalltown and Des Moines, Ia.; Detroit, Mich.; Dallas, Tex.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Provo, Utah; Washington, D.C.; and Tampa, Fla. -- to mention just a sampling.

Throughout the nation, civic authorities, police, veterans organizations, community relations agencies and other groups moved swiftly and vigorously to protect places of worship and other likely targets, Catholic and Protestant as well as Jewish.

In New York City, for instance, Mayor Robert F. Wagner ordered prompt investigations by police and by the Commission on Intergroup Relations. Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy denounced the acts of vandalism as a form of madness, stating his belief that they were isolated outbreaks, not representing any group or plan of action. The entire police force was alerted. Other cities reacted similarly.

Around the World

Crude slogans, reviving bitter memories of pre-World War II incitements, were scattered across the globe. Vienna's only synagogue was besmirched with "Out with the Jews." In London, "Juden Raus" was scrawled on a number of buildings housing Jewish organizations, synagogues and an art gallery. In Italy, the legend was "Morte" ("Death"); in Brazil, "Viva Hitler."

A foot-high swastika was carved on a factory entrance in Oslo, while the painted caption, "Potsdam Jewish Shopkeeper," defaced a statue of Franklin D. Roosevelt in the Norwegian capital.

Swastikas smeared on store windows gave Hong Kong its first taste of overt anti-Semitism. Storekeepers in Johannesburg and Durban, South Africa, found anti-Jewish leaflets pasted on their windows.

In Britain, several Jewish members of Parliament received telephoned threats. Five prominent Amsterdam Jews were sent swastika-embellished notes proclaiming "Jews are not wanted." In Vancouver, Canada, the editor of an Angle-Jewish newspaper was anonymously warned, "We're going to make soap out of you."

Causes and Conclusions

Official and non-official opinion was uniformly distressed, angry and dazed -- but generally wary of pinpointing the causes. Among those who did venture to theorize, there were two main camps of opinion. Some viewed the rash of anti-Semitic episodes as the coordinated work of a small but fanatic international movement of neo-Nazi and neo-Fascist groups centered in West Germany. Others felt that each incident was the work of juvenile delinquents or crackpots craving publicity. Many observers considered it highly probable that the initial acts in West Germany had been planned by neo-Nazi groups there.

The extensive coverage of the Cologne outrage and ensuing epidemic has raised the question whether prominent treatment in newspapers, radio and TV may unintentionally encourage imitative acts. Police reports throughout the U.S. indicate that many of the anti-Semitic outrages committed here were the work of teen-agers. A number of youngsters under arrest told authorities that they were motivated by programs they had watched on TV, or by detailed and sensational newspaper stories.

In Germany, the resurgence of anti-Semitism caused deep-seated alarm and produced immediate demands for a clean-up of former Nazis in high posts and an overhauling of education. The press highlighted recent surveys showing widespread racial hatred persisting in Germany, and complete ignorance of Hitlerism's evils on the part of German youth.

CITIZENS COUNCIL NEWS

The first state-wide meeting of the Flint River Citizens Council, Inc., of Georgia, was held January 10 at Macon; delegates elected officers for 1960. Formed a few months ago, the new organization now has units operating in at least 15 cities in Georgia. The announced goal is to enlist 100,000 members and to set up an active Council in every Congressional district.

The Seaboard Citizens Council is campaigning for funds for John Frederick Kasper, its imprisoned leader; the appeals come from Floyd Fleming, chairman of the Committee to Free John Kasper. After his release from prison in Tallahassee, Fla., where he served his second term for inciting racial riots, Kasper was sent to Nashville. There he is serving a six-month sentence in connection with the disturbances which accompanied public school desegregation in Nashville in 1959.

KU KLUX KLAN SPLITS IN GEORGIA

As the result of internal squabble in the U.S. Klans, Knights of the KKK, Inc., which is headed by Eldon Edwards, dissidents have formed their own Klan organization. Chartered in Fulton County, the splinter group is called Knights of the KKK, Inc. Listed as incorporators are R.L. Bing, Sr., H.J. Jones, W.B. Parr and J.T. Campbell.

SUBJECT: ANTI-SEMITIC OUTBREAKS IN WEST GERMANY AND ELSEWHERE INTERNAL SECURITY - GERMANY

We are definitely not satisfied with what has been developed thus far as to what is behind recent anti-Semitic outbreaks abroad. While some German officials feel such activity has no organizational direction fact remains the East German Communist Party decided in early 1959 to instigate pro-Nazi and anti-Semitic incidents in West Germany in order to discredit the West German Government. This objective in itself shows that the communists recognize that anti-Semitism is a powerful political weapon. The incidents have occurred and the supposition that the communists are behind them certainly has some basis.

For that reason we have instructed all of our Legal Attaches in Europe to aggressively ferret out the facts through sources available to them and to report to the Bureau twice monthly until further notice as to results of their efforts.

With regard to the results of our inquiries thus far it is believed a sound purpose would be served in furnishing the facts to the Civil Rights Division and Internal Security Division of the Department. Anti-Semitism is infectious and often finds expression through hate groups and hatemongers here in the U.S. Dissemination of results of our efforts to these Divisions of the Department would serve to show that there is some basis for suspecting communist involvement in such incidents and indicate we have taken cognizance of this by making widespread inquiries abroad.

RECOMMENDATION:

Attached for approval is a letter to the Civil Rights Division with a copy to the Internal Security Division containing the results of our inquiries.

'I JOINED A NAZI HATE GANG'

Neo-Fascists Loosely Organized

Anti Semitic Outbreaks

DONAHOE

This is the last of a series of articles by a veteran American foreign correspondent who joined a Nazi hate gang to get the inside story of anti-Semitism.

By SERGE FLIEGERS

Hearst Headline Service Exclusive to N. Y. Journal-American.

HEIDELBERG, Jan. 28.—Not organized in the sense that the Communist Party is organized, the Nazi underground is composed of a number of independent groups, organizations, publishing firms and little retreats where extremists can lie low and bide their time.

In Hamburg, I wandered into a clinic that could have served as an Alfred Hitchcock movie set. The medical director is Prof. Heinrich Kunstmann, who was highly regarded by Hitler and his comrades.

Dr. Kunstmann's assistant, Dr. Walther Scheel, was leader of the Salzburg Hitler Jugend (Youth Movement) after the Anschluss in Austria.

OTHER HITLER FIGURES

The lady in the white gown with the hard face is none other than Frau Von Doenitz, wife of the Admiral whom Hitler appointed as his successor.

In Gailenberg, near Augsburg, Ilse Hess, wife of Hitler's deputy, Rudolf Hess, runs a pension named "Mountain Retreat." It serves as retreat for many of her husband's friends.

In Coburg, I talked to former SS chief stormtrooper, Fuehrer Did I know Col. Rudel? I confessed I hadn't met, but knew Arthur Erhardt, who now edits the magazine "Nation Europa" and says he is "in contact with many friends in the United States and Britain."

In Munich, another SS alumnus named Erich Kernmayr claimed he had many friends in the United States.

ON NASSER'S PAYROLL

Another friend, whom he recently visited, is Dr. Johannes von Leers, former SS officer and "race researcher" who now holds a top job with Nasser's Egyptian government in Cairo.

In talking to these men and women, heirs to Hitler's era of horrors, I was not asked for secret signs or passwords. There were more subtle ways of checking up.

Casually, in the conversation, key names would crop up. of Hans Ulrich Rudel, former Nazi ace who escaped to Argentina, moved to Brazil when Peron was ousted, and returned to Germany to help the ultra-right wing Reich Party in its campaigns.

MRS. RUDOLF HESS

But Rudolf Kemmerich, the "German Students Bund" president, was more cagey. He wanted to receive a letter from Berlin telling him about the "new member from America" before he consented to see me in his Heidelberg headquarters.

He has reason to be cautious. West Berlin's energetic police cracked down on the Bund as a subversive and Neo-Nazi organization. They arrested most of the key members.

Kemmerich escaped to West Germany, where Chancellor Adenauer's government is pursuing Neo-Nazis with less vigor although forcefully condemning them.

The German Reich Party and many other right-wing groups have sought to disassociate themselves publicly from the swastika incidents.

DISAVOW HATE ACTION

Their argument, as voiced to me by Adolf Van Thadden of the Reich Party, is:

"We would be cutting our own throat by ordering such things. Our party would be outlawed by the government."

How dangerous are these people? The best estimate seems to be: Not very—now.

Although anti-Semitism and Nazism are endemic in Ger- particularly conducive to their growth. The country is prosperous, and there is no widespread seeking for scapegoats — Jewish or otherwise — as there was in the depression-ridden, embittered Germany between the wars.

But one cannot talk with as many would-be gauleiters and fuehrers as I did without feeling that the potential of danger is here.

I recall an incident in Wiesbaden, headquarters of the Neo-Nazi "National Youth Community." The young rightist I was talking to was not "typical"—there's no way to describe a "typical Nazi"—but looked, acted and talked like a number of others I had seen.

"We are just at the stage of organizing and holding meetings and making speeches," he told me. "But the day of action is not far distant.

"Today we have only knives. Soon we will have revolvers and guns."

100-243140

Bureau cable 1-20-60 to Legat, Bonn, referred to press accounts that West Germans have proof communists behind anti-Semitic outbreaks and instructed Legat to furnish facts promptly. Bureau cable 1-22-60 advised press continues to report West Germans have proof communists behind these incidents and reiterated instructions to submit details promptly. With respect to the 1-22-60 cable to Bonn, Director indicated he desired to see Legat, Bonn's reply. The attached cable of 1-22-60 which crossed in mails is Legat, Bonn's reply thereto.

ACTION:

For information. It is noted that by communication dated 1-21-60 we alerted not only the Legat, Bonn, but all Legal Attaches, to notify Bureau promptly of these incidents in their territories and whether there is any indication of an organized effort behind these incidents. Other than the data contained in the attached cable, we have no evidence that these incidents are communist inspired or of an organized nature and we so advised Legat, Bonn.

I hope we are on top of it & do not underestimate it as we did Castro's communist connections before he seized power in Jan. 1959.

The recent pattern of anti-Semitic demonstrations abroad prompted us to initiate inquiries to determine whether there was an organized motivation behind the incidents.

In this regard a United Press International dispatch from Bonn on January 20, 1960, indicated the West German Government had announced it had proof the communists were behind many recent anti-Semitic incidents. The announcement was attributed to an unidentified official spokesman although it was indicated the West German Ministry of Defense apparently had originated the data on which the announcement was based.

British and French Consulates in Bilbao, Spain. On the morning of January 10, 1960, an anonymous caller telephoned a local newspaper in Bilbao and suggested that if a representative of the newspaper visited the American Consulate, he might find something interesting. Within a few hours Radio Espana Independiente, a radio transmitter operated by the Communist Party of Spain and which is believed to be in Prague, Czechoslovakia, reported the painting of the swastikas on the doors of the Consulates in Bilbao.

On January 26, 1960, [redacted] of the United States Embassy Political Section, Madrid, Spain, advised that over the weekend of January 23 - 25, 1960, swastikas had been carved into the brass name plates of the Casa Americana, United States Information Service building in Bilbao, Spain. He also stated that swastikas had appeared during the past few weeks in Barcelona and Madrid, there having been some three different "epidemics" in the latter place. Swastikas were painted on the buildings of the Bank of Spain and the Spanish Ministry of Air. None of the official Spanish sources contacted in connection with this matter has expressed the opinion that the campaign is a communist-directed one and these sources are rather inclined to the idea that the painting of the swastikas is the work of hoodlums.

Confession Is Called Proof Reds Instigated Nazi Scare

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The communists have put over a gigantic hoax. They have almost persuaded a gullible world to believe that the West German people are responsible for the outbreaks of anti-Semitism in recent weeks. Actually, proof now has been obtained that the whole thing is a communist plot.

Lawrence

The Soviet government maintains an active apparatus of agents in all countries, including the United States. The same technique that was employed in West Germany was used throughout the world. It is one of the boldest pieces of propaganda that the communists have ever tried. Will they continue to get away with it?

Already they have been assisted by the persons who pooh - pooh all communist espionage and artificial provocations. Yet no such co-ordinated activity as the world has been witnessing could possibly be just the work of hooligans or persons bent on playing pranks. Some individuals doubtless can be found who engaged in it without inspiration, but the facts now coming to light show that the communists, acting through their apparatus in East Germany, started it all in West Germany as a political maneuver to discredit the Adenauer government.

A United Press International dispatch from Bonn on Jan. 20 says:

"The West German government announced today that it has proof the communists are behind many recent anti-Semitic incidents. An official spokesman said after a full-scale cabinet meeting that the ministers discussed at length the question of communist inspiration of the rash of anti-Jewish activities. He said that the Interior Ministry, in cooperation with the state governments, will publish a white paper on the subject at some future date still to be determined.

"'Even today,' he added, 'it can be said that communist actions can be proven in three different areas, or in three different roles. These are: (1) as instigators, (2) as perpetrators, and (3) in making full propaganda use of the incidents to defame the Federal Republic as a glance at the (East German) Soviet zone press shows.'

Some of the evidence comes in the form of a confession by Bernhard Schlottmann, twenty-two, treasurer of the neo-Nazi National Students' Federation, that he was under East German secret orders to stir up neo-Nazi activity in West Berlin.

Another youngster, Wolfgang Solondz, who illegally crossed the border into West Berlin last year, has just been arrested as a communist agent. He had become a member of the National Youth of Germany, a "rightist" organization which was banned last week, and boasted that he could get weapons from the Soviet zone.

The West German defense ministry has issued a paper based on reports of its intelligence service. It says that at a special meeting on Jan. 23 last year, the Central Committee of the Communist party in the Soviet zone laid plans to develop anti-Semitic incidents as a means of damaging the reputation of the Bonn government. The committee's propaganda section was instructed to start a campaign to indicate that anti-Semitism was being revived.

Report "Commandos"

The report further says that the East German communist authorities planned the organization of "action commandos" to desecrate Jewish monuments, while the communist underground in West Germany was given orders to co-operate in any activities that could create unrest in the Federal Republic. Students in an East Berlin university, according to the report, were advised that anti-Semitic demonstrations would be staged in West Berlin and that they should take part not only in these but in any rally, whether it was for or against the Jews.

In December, the Defense Ministry says, an order was issued by the East German authorities that incidents were to be created in due time prior to the "summit" meeting in May.

What could be more natural than for a propaganda chief sitting in Moscow to order Communist agents everywhere, including those in the United States, to stir up antagonism against the West German government on the theory that this would weaken Chancellor Adenauer's influence with the other governments of the free world and bring about the withdrawal of the allies from West Berlin? The game is plain to see, and from now on more and more evidence can be expected to be revealed showing how the Communists engineered the anti-Semitic disturbances for political purposes. It certainly should show the American people that in their midst are active Communists who do Moscow's bidding.

Just a few days ago, J. Edgar Hoover, head of the F. B. I., said that, while the Communists in this country aren't large in numbers, they have a hard core of workers who are ready to do almost anything that Moscow commands. It's too bad so many people in America regard the Communist menace as just something the late Senator Joe McCarthy dreamed up. Moscow has been more effective inside the United States since the Wisconsin Senator's efforts to uncover the Communist plots were defeated that it was before, though the "achievement" of Klaus Fuchs in stealing the atomic-bomb secrets still ranks as the most successful piece of infiltration of modern times.

FROM Legal Attaché, Madrid (105-286)

SUBJECT: ANTI-SEMITIC OUTBREAKS IN WEST GERMANY AND ELSEWHERE INTERNAL SECURITY - GERMANY

Re Madrid letter 2-19-60.

Since the submission of reference letter contact with available sources has resulted in the obtaining of information that there has been no additional outbreak of painting of swasticas or other anti-Semitic activities in Spain.

On 3-1-60 this office was furnished on a circulating basis with a copy of Embassy Despatch dated 2-19-60 which was captioned "Editor of SP Bewails Nazis in Vitriolic Diatribe Against Jews". This despatch stated that RODRIGO ROYO, described as the active but acidulous editor-in-chief of the lively Madrid magazine "SP", had published an article in the January 15, 1960, issue of the magazine in which he defended the Nazis and their actions during the 2nd World War. He went on to claim that now it is the Nazis who are being persecuted by the Jews. He claimed that when a Nazi now paints swasticas on a synagogue he only shows courage such as a Jew might have had in painting the Star of David on an SS Barracks.

The Embassy Despatch reported that the Madrid daily newspaper "Ya" on 1-28-60 published a sharp attack on "the recent anti-Jewish Campaigns", which attack was obviously aimed at "SP" although the magazine was not mentioned by name. The despatch stated that ROYO replied to this attack in the 2-15-60 issue of "SP" and claimed that there is no anti-Jewish campaign at present but instead an anti-Nazi campaign.

Information received from the Embassy Press Attaché in the past indicates that ROYO fought in the Spanish Blue Division on the German side in the 2nd World War and is somewhat anti-American in his feelings.

TRIAL OF VON BEBENBURG

Information from the West German publication "Der Spiegel" of 2/17/60 and an AFN radio broadcast of 2/18/60 disclosed that FRANZ KARG VON BEBENBURG, son-in-law of MATILDA VON LUDENDORFF, widow of General LUDENDORFF, of World War I fame, is to be tried in Munich, West Germany as the result of the publication of anti-Semitic material in the magazine "Der Quell." This material which allegedly defames two Jewish government representatives in West Berlin, as well as the Adenauer Government, is claimed by the prosecution to have been written under a pseudonym by JOACHIM VON LEERS, Hitler's one-time head of indoctrination now residing in Egypt.

COMMENT BY EDITOR OF WEST GERMAN NEWSPAPER

On 2/24/60, Dr. JOSEF EBERLE, editor of the Stuttgarter Zeitung, Stuttgart, West Germany, expressed the opinion that the anti-Semitic incidents were mainly the work of hoodlums and drunks and had no political significance outside of the use to which they were being put by the communists.

It should be noted that Dr. EBERLE has a Jewish wife and was a victim of the Nazi regime, having lost his job because of Hitler's rise to power in 1933. During the Nazi period, he had a constant struggle for existence and survival until the destruction of the Third Reich in 1945.

ANTI-SEMITIC and NEO-NAZI
ACTIVITIES IN AUSTRIA

The following information which was received from United States sources in the American Embassy, Vienna, was taken from both classified and unclassified sources and has been reported elsewhere in the case entitled "Current Soviet Espionage and Subversive Activities (Austria); Espionage-R:"

During the week of January 11-15, 1960, sporadic anti-Semitic and neo-Nazi incidents were reported. Several arrests were made, the government condemned the activities, and further steps were initiated to punish the culprits.

The Vienna journalist, ALFRED BORTH, a leader of the neo-Nazi "Legion Europa" was arrested for an allegedly subversive article in the neo-Nazi weekly "Wegwarte." In Klagenfurt, a 17-year old boy was arrested for swastika daubing, was sent to jail for two weeks and his case turned over to the public prosecutor for further action. Similar measures were taken in Graz. Several additional swastika daubers were arrested in Lower Austria, Styria and Salzburg; and in the Carinthian city of Bleiburg, unknown persons hoisted a flag with the inscription, "Our slogan: Jews to the gallows." The Vienna press of January 14, 1960, reported leaflets displaying swastikas were disseminated in Vienna's first district and new occurrences of swastika smearing were cited in Graz, Salzburg and Lower Austria.

On January 8, 1960, State Secretary for the Interior KARL GRUBHOFER demanded vigorous repressive action against perpetrators of anti-Semitic acts and asked for new legislation should existing laws prove inadequate to cope with the problem.

The Socialist press of January 10, 1960, reported that Interior Minister AFRITSCH again announced that "stern action" would be taken against the "wire pullers" of anti-Semitic incidents.

On January 13, 1960, the Austrian Cabinet heard the AFRITSCH report on neo-Nazi incidents in Austria, recommended harsh repressive measures against such activities and instructed AFRITSCH to take all necessary steps [redacted] tracing and arresting the culprits.

Meanwhile, the non-communist Austrian Youth Federation issued a statement on January 12, 1960, demanding merciless repressive action against neo-Nazi elements. On January 14, 1960, a protest rally organized by the Austrian Communist Party against neo-Nazi provocations and anti-Semitism was held in Vienna. While the communist press has devoted most of its attention to anti-Semitic incidents, the non-communist press has also uniformly condemned such neo-Nazi activities.

According to the Austrian press of February 5, 1960, the Austrian State Police have again arrested KONRAD WINDISCH, Chairman of the neo-Nazi Austrian National Youth organization, on the charge that his recent article in the periodical, "Wegwarte," advocates Nazism and incites to rebellion. The incriminated issue of "Wegwarte" was also seized under the Austrian press law.

Embassy sources commented that WINDISCH, one-time editor of the youth magazine "Der Trommler," was sentenced in April 1959 to a six-month prison term for publishing neo-Nazi articles.

Austrian newspapers on February 6, 1960, quoted Interior Minister AFRITSCH as having revealed in a recent speech at Salzburg that neo-Nazi organizations have been uncovered in several Austrian provinces. AFRITSCH advocated a "state security law" designed to stamp out subversive activities and semi-secret groups.

In a press conference on February 5, 1960, Minister of Education DRIMMEL discounted swastika daubings in Austria as "mischief and childish acts of bravado without any political background."

Foreign Minister KREISKY in a London press conference stated he saw no serious danger in recent neo-Nazi activities in Austria, observing that "there are a few small neo-Nazi youth groups, but they do not exert any political influence whatsoever."

The Austrian Cabinet on February 23, 1960, approved a bill calling for fines up to 10,000 schillings and/or imprisonment up to one month for wearing and public display of badges and emblems of "organizations banned in Austria." The communist and coalition press complained on February 24 and 25, respectively, that the bill does not prohibit wearing of Wehrmacht decorations from which the swastika has been erased.

Items in the Bonn "General Anzeiger" and the American "Stars and Stripes, European Edition" of 2/22/60 disclosed that the Austrian Police on the previous day had discovered a connection between the Ku Klux Klan in the United States and the Fascist "Social European Movement" in Malmoe, Sweden. Large amounts of anti-Semitic propaganda material which had been confiscated by the Police in Vienna had been sent from the United States and Sweden to Austria. Three leading members of the Viennese underground group which works as a cover organization for six illegal Nazi organizations were arrested. This has been reported separately under the caption of "Ku Klux Klan, Internal Security."

CONCLUSIONS

From the above it may be seen that although the communists have profited propagandawise from the anti-Semitic incidents, it cannot be proved to date that they have instigated them. The incidents have lessened in recent weeks and it is believed that the strong West German political reaction against the incidents in conjunction with the equally strong West German press reaction and severe penalties for the perpetrators, when apprehended, has caused a decrease in the number of these acts.

These matters are being closely followed and further activity in this connection will be reported without delay.

30 Rightist Groups Operate in W. Germany

By SAUL CARSON

Bonn, March 7 (JTA) — The head of West Germany's FBI disclosed today that 30 right-wing political groups and youth organizations were operating in West Germany and West Berlin. He said they had a total membership of 98,000, half of them in adult groups which form political parties.

These right-wing political parties polled a total of 350,000 votes in the last elections, he said.

Dr. Rudolf Toyka, head of the internal security department in the Interior Ministry, said his organization had screened the 15 youth groups with a total membership of 40,000 to 50,000. Only one, he said, tended outright towards a Nazi type of ideology. This group, which maintained contact with the German Reich Party, had a membership of 2,300.

Most of the youth groups, Dr. Toyka said, officially accept the democratic principles of the West German Constitution. "Whether they are Nazis at heart, I could not tell."

He said they wore military-type uniforms, marched in military fashion and tried to glorify the military traditions of pre-Hitler Germany.

Dr. Toyka, who supervised preparation of the White Book issued by the West German government on the recent outbreak of anti-Semitism, said in reply to a question that he had been a member of the Nazi Party from 1937 to 1945.

Was Tax Collector

Under the Nazi regime, he said, he was a tax collector, following a generation-old family tradition. He added that, like many other Germans, he began privately questioning the "morality" of the Nazi state. He said that like the vast majority of Germans, he had known nothing about the Nazi concentration camps or other Nazi atrocities.

Dr. Toyka has served as head of the security organization since 1954. He was put in the job by Dr. Gerhard Schroeder, the Minister of the Interior. Dr. Schroeder himself has been accused of having been a member of the Nazi Party.

GENERAL

It has become obvious that the amount of anti-Semitic and neo-Nazi incidents in West Germany in the recent period has diminished almost to the point of non-existence. This may be due to prompt and efficient police work, plus the attitude of the German population and press, both of which have strongly condemned this activity.

While communist, East German and Soviet instigation of incidents continues to be suspected by the West Germans and also openly charged by them, no evidence has yet been produced to substantiate this.

PUBLIC OPINION POLL

On 3/9/60 the West German newspaper "Die Welt" (Hamburg) contained an item on page 3 indicating that the EMNID Institute for Public Opinion had ascertained that four per cent of the population of West Germany was anti-Semitic. The newspaper found this deplorable but not alarming. They were re-assured because eighty per cent of the persons questioned were strongly opposed to anti-Semitism. The paper also expressed interest in what the results of such a survey would show had it been taken in another country. b7D

SPEECH OF PRESIDENT LUEBKE

The 3/14/60 issue of the West German newspaper "General Anzeiger" (Bonn) contained an account of the West German President HEINRICH LUEBKE's speech on the occasion of Brotherhood Week. LUEBKE called for an end to race hatred and asked for respect, tolerance and brotherly love. He decried the crimes of the Nazis against the Jews during the Hitler period.

ANTI-SEMITIC INCIDENT

On 3/15/60 the "General Anzeiger" contained an item on page 2 which disclosed that a 47-year old watchman by the name of PLASS, who resided in Gesecke, Lippstadt, had been sentenced by the court at Minden (West Germany) to four months' imprisonment on charges of insult, defamation of the memory of deceased persons and public approbation of National Socialist crimes of violence. PLASS also was required to pay a fine of 800 Deutsch Marks for the victims at Agadir, Morocco. The sentence of imprisonment was suspended. On the day of the founding of the Mindener Society for Christian-Jewish Cooperation, the accussed called to a Jewish businessman from Brazil "Too bad that they didn't gas more Jews. Too bad that they didn't also gas you."

NOTE: In order to keep abreast of this matter, the Bureau instructed on 2-5-60 Legal Attaches in Bonn, London, Madrid and Rome to submit a letter to the Bureau on the 4th and 19th of each month regarding this matter until further notice. Instant Legat, Bonn, letter points out that the wave of anti-Semitic and neo-Nazi incidents which followed the defacing of the Cologne Synagogue last Christmas Eve has subsided to minor proportions and that information from other Legats shows this to have been the tendency in other areas of Europe and consequently Legat, Bonn, points out the Bureau may wish to reconsider its previous instructions to have this material reported on a bimonthly basis. In view of the impending Summit Conference, it is believed desirable to have the Legats continue to report information regarding this matter to the Bureau on a bimonthly basis at least until the conclusion of the Summit Conference since it is entirely possible that further incidents may be projected in order to embarrass the West German Government during the Summit Conference deliberations.

ANTI-SEMITIC AND NEO-NAZI INCIDENTS

Berlin

The March 29, 1960 edition of the United States newspaper, "Stars & Stripes" reported that West Berlin police announced that on March 27, 1960, walls of six houses had been smeared with swastikas and Nazi slogans. All of the houses were in the American sector of Berlin.

U.S. Military Train to Berlin

The March 27, 1960 issue of "Stars & Stripes" contained an item that Soviet border guards had held up a United States military train to Berlin for 14 hours but released it after strong United States protests to Soviet headquarters. The cause was an alleged swastika traced in dust on a railroad car which was observed by the Soviets at the border. A U.S. Army spokesman gave an account which indicated the swastika may have been drawn by the Soviets themselves and Army authorities regarded the incident as "harassment."

GERMANY

The West German newspaper "General-Anzeiger" published at Bonn contained an item in the 4/14/60 issue as follows:

"Synagogue Incendiary Wanted To Avenge Blows

"Amberg. (ap) The Amberg Public Prosecutor has entered a complaint charging attempted arson against the 17-year old apprentice HOFMANN from Amberg who sought to set fire to the synagogue at Amberg on 1/13/60. As the office of the Public Prosecutor announced, HOFMANN confessed his action after his arrest and said that he was once struck by a Jew and wanted to get revenge for this."

A further item from the 4/25/60 issue of the General-Anzeiger was as follows:

"A desecration of the historical Jewish cemetery in Fuerth (Bavaria) has been discovered. As announced by the Fuerth Criminal Police, several tombstones in the disused old cemetery were overturned by perpetrators up to now unknown."

AUSTRIA

United States Embassy sources in Vienna provided no information in the last period on anti-Semitic incidents in Austria.

STATISTICS CONCERNING INCIDENTS

NEO-NAZISM IN AUSTRIA

The following information was extracted from the Foreign Service Dispatch from the American Embassy, Vienna, dated 3/25/60:

The Vienna press on March 22, 1960, reported that delegates of the Austrian Association of War Victims, which represents 400,000 injured veterans and their dependents, called on Interior Minister AFRITSCH and handed him a resolution expressing concern over neo-Nazi activities in Austria and calling upon the government to remain vigilant.

The press also noted on March 24, 1960, that the Upper Austrian branch of the League of Patriotic Youth founded in September 1957, decided to disband voluntarily in anticipation of forced dissolution by police for suspected neo-Nazi activity.

COMMENTS

It is noted that from an analysis of the above and previously transmitted material, the wave of anti-Semitic and neo-Nazi incidents which followed the defacing of the Cologne synagogue last Christmas Eve has subsided to minor proportions in West Germany. Information furnished by other Legats shows this to have been the tendency in other areas of Europe.

Meanwhile, despite intensive investigation by West German authorities, no indication has been found connecting organized communist or rightist instigation with these happenings in Germany, although the communists have been quick to take advantage of them for propaganda purposes.

It is therefore suggested that the Bureau may wish to reconsider its instructions to have this material reported on a bi-weekly basis with the understanding, of course, that Legats will remain alert for information of this type and will report any significant developments that occur.
